

cutted chattel mortgages to secure a number of creditors. The first, for $1,477.30, covers stock, tools, fixtures, accounts, etc., and is made to L. J. Olliver, trustee for a number of creditors. The second is for $796.42 and is to the People's Savings bank. It covers the same property, as does also the third, which is for $50, to the Marquardt Savings bank.

Kenyon-Cooper failure cont.

Clipped By:

libwebmaster

Fri, Mar 11, 2022